ABSTRACT

The master's thesis of the graduate student of the Department of Social Communication of the Faculty of Philosophy and Social Sciences of BSU Ji Jiayu "Intercultural Communication In The Era Of Mobility Between Russia And China" is devoted to the analysis of the differences in Sino-Russian cross-cultural communication. It is shown that different cultural psychology, national character, and the connotation of cross-cultural communication often affect each other's communication. The author analyzes the Sino-Russian cross-cultural communication from different perspectives.

The aim of the master's thesis is to analyze the mutual interests and differences brought by different cultures in the communication between Russia and China.
