ABSTRACT

Object of the research: GR as a social institution, providing interaction between public organizations and the state.

Subject of the research: GR-activities of the public association "Belarusian Republican Youth Union".

Purpose: to reveal the features of GR-communication of Belarusian youth organizations.

The methodological basis of the diploma work was formed by general scientific methods: the method of analysis and synthesis, the method of induction and deduction, the comparative method, as well as particular scientific method used in empirical research (correspondence structured interview).

In the process of writing the thesis the following results were obtained: the features of the institute of GR in Belarus were identified, the characteristic features of communicative practices of GR-activities of the public association "Belarusian Republican Youth Union" were revealed.

The novelty of the results is due to the incomplete knowledge of the GR system in the activity of Belarusian public organizations.

The results are characterized by a wide range of theoretical and practical applications. The materials of the diploma work can be applied in the educational process, in the process of studying and enhancing the GR-activities of Belarusian public organizations.

The materials and results of the thesis have been obtained on the basis of reliable sources and independently conducted theoretical and practical research.

Keywords: public organization, public association, youth public organization, state body, gr specialist.
