ABSTRACT

The purpose of this work: generalization and systematization of knowledge about the implementation of the dialogue between the state and youth in the institutional forms of state youth policy in the Republic of Belarus.

The object of this study is the features of the dialogue between the state and the youth of the Republic of Belarus, participating in the formation and implementation of state youth policy. The subject is indicators of the activity of online communities of the country's largest youth public association.

In the process of writing the work, the following results were obtained: the concepts of youth and youth policy were determined, their ambiguity and variability were identified, the stages and features of the formation of youth policy in the CIS countries and the Republic of Belarus were identified.

The novelty of the results is due to the systematization of knowledge about youth policy in the Republic of Belarus, the use of innovative methods of analysis of management networks, as an instrument of state influence. The materials of the master's thesis can be used in the educational process, as well as in the formation and study of the processes of developing youth policy, its implementation in practice, in particular in the field of media communications.
